Talk into the air,
Talk into the universe.

Whisper your wish
Utter your desires

Words without target
a Meaning to an invisible power

the force of elfs
The goal of trancending self-interest

Talk about your healthwishes

Talk about friendship

Talk about ending war

Talk about curing diseases

Talk about ending misery.

Whisper your wish to the source of reality

Whisper your necessity.

They say the reality is a living source

they say reality does exist

They say it has a creative core

It is said it is the source of wealth
It is said it is the source of good health

It is said the source of elfs is the reality itself.

humble prayers not even adressing an object

It is said each prayer with egotistic wishes has a bad side effect.

It is said each prayer not wishing the good gives a bad return

May the object of prayer ever be adressed with good intentions.

May the reality of our living humanity be a goal of meditation.

May prayer be a guide unto a good life
